The Enchanted Desert Waldorf School is proud to present its Flamenco concert, the first in its 2006-07 Community Concert Series. Renowned Master Flamenco Guitarist Chris Burton Jacome and Tucson's own Andres Lemons, who plays at Casa Vicente, plus flamenco dancers Lea Gyllanhaal, Barbara Schussler, Terri James, Sophia Eva, and more will provide the entertainment. Food available for sale.

The mission of the Community Concert Series is to provide opportunities for families with children to attend culturally enriching musical events. The concerts are outdoors in the playground of the Enchanted Desert Waldorf School, where elementary school aged children and their family can sit on the grass and enjoy great music.

The Enchanted Desert Waldorf School (pre-K thru 8th grade) offers a vigorous curriculum, rich in arts and culture that prepares students to enter adulthood with self-discipline, independence, mastery of analytical and critical faculties, and reverence for the world's beauty and wonder. For more information about the Community Concert Series, please contact Joel Parris at joel@kxci.org or leave a message at 325-5514.
